Wes Carver was a proud decorated veteran of many wars. He first learned to handle a gun at the age of 12. From that day, he made a promise to himself to be a soldier. His father was also a veteran, but he was killed in combat in 2523. His mother was an elementary school teacher, before she passed away from skin cancer in 2540. He graduated Poseidon High School with a 4.0 GPA. Immediately following

High School at age 17, he was enrolled into the Poseidon City Police Academy for 2 years. He was the top graduate, and rose through the ranks, reaching Lieutenant in only 6 years. He later transferred to their SWAT team, being with them for 6 years, and being the youngest recruit. He then joined the New Republic Army, serving for 3 years before being discharged for failure to rescue a VIP during a mission in the New Middle Eastern Province. Now, when people look at Wes, they see a failure, which drives Wes insane, and people ignore him because of his mishap. He has been ousted by society, and doesn't fit in with other people. He is now the only person who can find the population of Poseidon City, before the Military, and one femme fatale, kill him. But he isn't alone. A mysterious cell phone helps him along the way, but Wes doesn't know who's on the other side, nor is he aware of what's in store.

Quotes: If looks could kill, every man would be dead; don't remind me

Katya is Poseidon City's most feared (and most sexy) woman. She was born into a crime family. Her father was the boss of the Oorumov Crime Family. Her father died while doing a heist. Her mother was the Sovietnik (Councilor) of the Oorumov Crime Family. Her mother died due to complications with heart disease. Her family history includes famous Russian Mafioso, like Solntsevskaya Bratva. Her other descendents include KGB agents and Spetsnaz soldiers. As she was growing up, primarily in her mid teens, she began to regret being associated with a crime family, and she has made several attempts to run away, only for her to be found by her family. When she was in her early 20s, she regained her focus on being the top Mafioso, and cared less for anyone (or anything) else other than her family, and the business. She temporarily joined a Russian Military, but was discharged 2 months after joining, due to her filing false records. After her parent's deaths, she began to read some of her old parent's journals. Entries include the struggle to get the Oorumov crime family on the map, Katya's childhood, her training, the family business, her accomplishments, and her rise to being Poseidon's #1 most feared woman. Upon reading these, she later felt remorse for her actions, but didn't want anyone else to find out. She gets a call regarding a hit on Wes Carver. She accepts the job, and seems willing at first, but later finds out she can't complete the job.
